

Kyllönen's concerto a competition set piece

Photo: Tuire Ruokosuo

The Accordion Concerto  by Timo-Juhani Kyllönen has been chosen as one of the set pieces for the prestigious Klingenthal International Accordion Competition to be held on May 4–10, 2015. Taking part in the competition will be 35 accordionists, and the five who get through to the finals will perform Kyllönen's concerto with an orchestra. Fennica Gehrman has just published a piano score of the Accordion Concerto (See: New publications). The concerto was composed in 2000–01 and was recorded by Alba Records in 2008. Its spicy rhythmic figures reflect Kyllönen's many visits to Latin America.

Highlights 4/2014